Lord, you have the words of everlasting life. Psalm 19:8

Weekly News

Focus Areas for the Week

-This is the Third Sunday of Lent. In the Gospel this week we hear how Jesus became angry with the people who were using the temple as a marketplace. Jesus tells how the temple can be destroyed and raised in three days. We know that he is telling us that he is that temple. This is a good example of Jesus being fully man and fully God.

-March is Reading Month. Be sure to encourage your child to track their reading times. Information on the fun activities planned for this month will be coming home soon. Students have opportunities to win some cool prizes too!

Read, Read, Read

-Aunt Mary Visit-This Wednesday, my Aunt Mary will be coming to visit our classroom at 1:00 pm and meet the children in person. She is very excited to meet your wonderful children and play cards with them.

-Fairy Tales will be wrapped up this week. Students have been sharing a few of their most creative sentences with the class. Their stories are amazing so far.

-Despereaux-This week we will meet two new characters in the dungeon, Roscuro and Botticelli. These two rats try to entice Despereaux to come into the darkness. This will lead us into good discussion topics for our religion concepts of morality, temptation, and conscience.

-Southwest Region-In this next chapter we will explore the importance of water in this very dry region. One of the water sources we will discuss is the Colorado River.

Science-We will complete Lesson 3 on energy this week, review, and have a test on Thursday.
