Ascension of the Lord

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord. Psalm 47:2

Weekly News

-In religion we will continue our discussion on the sacraments, graces, and the Holy Spirit. There will be a religion quiz on Thursday. The children have been tested on the prayers The Act of Faith and the Act of Hope. They are doing very well. This week they will be asked to recite The Act of Love.

-Math concepts-next week we will review symmetry and then begin our unit in measurement and data.

-In social studies we will begin learning about economics. We will explore producers, consumers, taxes, budgets, and fair markets.

-Our Poetry Unit will conclude with students writing a Cinquain, Riddle, and Persona Poem. They are learning about the powerful use of words.

-Soybean Unit-Our plants are finally starting to grow. Be sure to check out some of the pictures on Classdojo. We planted more this week and hope to see more plants beginning to sprout.

-15 more days of school! We are working hard until that very last day but will also have moments of fun. The children are preparing for becoming a middle schooler. The year has flown by.

-Talent/Variety Show is tonight-Friday, May 19. It begins at 6:30 p.m. I have had an opportunity to preview some of the acts! What a great way to showcase the many talents these children have been blessed with and now share.

--If you come to the Talent Show or come into school, be sure to check out the upstairs hallways for the Art Show. They students' artwork is displayed throughout the halls.

As we pray in the Nicene Creed:
He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have not end.
