Kindergarten News

January 18, 2025

Dear Parents,

I hope everyone had a great week despite the cold temperatures and cloudy skies. It was wonderful to see the sun for a little bit on Friday, for sure! We have a few busy weeks ahead of us, and I know the kids are very excited!

Thank you for returning 2nd semester pizza, pasta and milk forms! Please let me know if you did not receive those papers last week.

Permission slips for our Catholic Schools Week bowling trip went home yesterday. Please let me know if I missed yours at pick-up yesterday afternoon. More CSW information is included in this week's school newsletter. Our kindergarten and 2nd grade classes will be attending Mass at the Cathedral of St. Andrew on Tuesday, January 28. I'm very excited that our kids will share in this wonderful experience!

An email with a link to sign up for parent/teacher conferences is also included in the school newsletter today. Conferences will be held the first couple weeks of February.

Congratulations to Aria Bozung! Aria was the kindergarten winner of the "Keep Christ in Christmas" drawing contest.

Happy Birthday Kate!

Kate will turn 6 next Wednesday!

We have been learning about 2D and 3D shapes and would like to make a collection of shapes to display. Please have your child look for any of the following shapes (such as paper towel tubes, boxes of different shapes, a toy, etc.) at home over the next week...

squares, circles, pentagons, hexagons, trapezoids, ovals, rectangles, triangles, stars, hearts, octagons, cubes, cylinders, cones

We will be celebrating our 100th day of school on January 31 (unless we have a snow day within the next couple weeks) and will be celebrating with a day of fun "100" activities and treats. Please have your child create a "100th Day of School" poster/project to display at school. Ideas/examples of previous projects would be 10 rows of 10 stickers, 100 pennies in a jar, a project made from 100 legos, 100 plastic army soldiers glued to a camouflage poster board, etc.

Please let me know if you have any questions and/or your child needs any materials/supplies that I can help with. Please return projects by January 31. Thank you!

Blessings for a wonderful weekend!
