Kindergarten News

January 23, 2025

Dear Parents,

What a week! I pray everyone stayed safe and warm this week! Although we were not able to accomplish everything we planned to this week, we still have a LOT of school and classroom news to share (in no particular order....)

Catholic Schools
United in Faith and Community

- Please join us for our Catholic Schools Week "Pack the Pews/Open House/Book Fair" beginning at the 11:00 Mass this Sunday.
- We will be having a student/community members breakfast on Monday, so students may not need a breakfast at home. Dress code for the day is school uniforms.
- Please send in a dollar store prize for our school-wide bingo game on Monday afternoon.
- We will be attending Mass at the Cathedral of St. Andrew on Tuesday. Permission slips will be sent home today. I apologize for the delay on those! Students are asked to wear school uniforms in the morning, but may bring sports/team gear to change into upon our return. Tuesday is our board game day, as well, so students may bring their favorite board game to play.
- Please continue to send in pizza, pasta and/or milk orders, if needed.
- We will continue to practice the same spelling words for next week.

We will be now be celebrating our 100th day of school on February 4, and will be celebrating with a day of fun "100" activities and treats. Please have your child create a "100th Day of School" poster/project to display at school. Ideas/examples of previous projects would be 10 rows of 10 stickers, 100 pennies in a jar, a project made from 100 legos, 100 plastic army soldiers glued to a camouflage poster board, etc. Please let me know if you have any questions and/or your child needs any materials/supplies that I can help with. Please return projects by February 4. Thank you!

Please use the Sign-Up Genius link in the school newsletter for parent/teacher conferences. I know many of you have already scheduled. Please let me know if a different day/time is more convenient for you. If it is easier to just meet when picking your child up after school, we can make that work! Thank you!

Please let me know if you have any questions regarding our upcoming week. I apologize ahead of time for the excitement and crazy schedule!

Hope to see you on Sunday!
