Kindergarten News

March 6, 2025

Dear Parents,
Happy March! We are very excited, here in kindergarten, to see the warmer weather heading our way! We have a general playground rule that it must be 50 degrees before the kids can take their coats off. That being said, we also look at the wind and whether the kids are wearing a sweater or only a polo, before we determine if they can take their coats off. It may be a good idea to leave an extra sweatshirt or light coat at school on days when a winter coat is too heavy, but a short sleeve shirt isn't quite warm enough. Thank you!

Thank you to all of this week's Mystery Reader volunteers! We have room for many more readers! Please let me know if you are interested! We can be flexible to accommodate your schedule! For security reasons, we are asking that Mystery Readers use the Parish office doors/lot on Lafayette. These would be the doors on the east side of the building basically straight down the hall from our classroom. Please stop in the office and let Mrs. Hudson know you are here. She will call down to our classroom so that we can unlock the doors. We would love for you to bring your favorite book(s) from home, but will also be happy to supply you with books. PLEASE do not tell your child/grandchild that you are planning on reading. It is such a great surprise for them! Please let me know if you have any questions. Thank you, again, for volunteering!

A BIG thank you to Aria's grandma and John's family for the Mardi Gras paczkis and doughnuts, to our 7th/8th grade study buddies for helping with our Mardi Gras masks, and to this week's MYSTERY readers!

March Reading Month Activities

March Reading Challenge

Students can pick and choose activities and fill in the coins as they are completed.

Shamrock Fill-In

Students can fill in a shamrock for each book read during the month. This can also include books that are read to them, of course.

Homework Books

Students will take a short book home each day to read for homework. They can use this book to fill in a shamrock, and can also record it on the sheet in their folder.

Punch Cards

Students have cards in the classroom that they "punch" each time they read a short book to me. A small prize will be awarded after each card he/she fills.

End of the Month Prizes

Prizes will be awarded to students based on individual effort. It is too challenging to award prizes based on number of books/pages/activities as each student has their own unique reading abilities. I will just be encouraging the kids to READ, READ, READ! Thank you!

Have a wonderful weekend!
