Kindergarten News

April 11, 2025

Dear Parents,

I hope everyone had a great week, despite the cold, cloudy weather!

Hopefully we will see some sun this weekend!

Our students have worked really hard this week, learning a lot of new skills and material. We are learning how to use symbols for greater than, less than, and equal to. Students are learning about goods and services, and have been giving some great examples of each! We have been reading/learning more about Easter, The Last Supper, Palm Sunday and Good Friday. I am amazed at what the kids have learned and all the details they can recall! Students continue to send/receive Lenten prayer partner cards. We are working on our sight words, spelling words, reading strategies and writing skills, as well.

Thank you to John and his family for the yummy

cupcakes on Thursday! Praying you had a wonderful birthday!

Thank you to this week's mystery readers- Arabella's dad and grandma. The kids loved the Miss Mary Mack game, the bracelets and cupcakes!
Thank you!

Report cards are being sent home today. Please look for them in your child's weekly envelope. Again, I am so happy with the progress our kids have made over the past several months and appreciate all of your help at home!

I am praying that everyone has a wonderful Holy Week. I am excited to be sharing this holiest of times with my students. They have shown so much desire in learning about the Stations of the Cross and Easter story.

Have a wonderful weekend!
