Kindergarten News

December 13, 2024

Dear Parents,

I cannot believe how fast this school year has flown! Here we are, just 12 days away from Christmas already! The kids have been very excited the last couple weeks and, to be honest, it has been hard to accomplish a lot of learning/work, but we ARE having a lot of fun! Chip, our shepherd/elf has been traveling around our classroom, making some messes and hiding in some very unique places. Last week, he was found outside waiting for St. Nick to fill our boots with candy! We are working on Christmas gifts and crafts, singing Christmas songs, and learning about the birth of Jesus.

Our Christmas concert begins at 6:00 Tuesday evening. Please enter in the downstairs doors (regular pick-up doors) no later than 5:50. Those doors will open at 5:30. Students are asked to dress in their Christmas best (no jeans, please.) The kids have been working very hard on their songs for the program. I know they are very anxious and excited to perform!

We will have our student Christmas party on Thursday afternoon from 12-2. Our PTO is planning a fun afternoon with a movie and snacks. Thank you to all of our volunteers for helping make this a special Christmas event for the kids! Students may wear red/green/holiday clothing.

Along with all of our other fun events next week, we are celebrating a kindergarten birthday! Happy Birthday to Aria Joyce, who will celebrate her birthday next Thursday!

A big thank you to John and his family for the Christmas cookie treat today! The kids loved them! Thank you for thinking of us!

Have a wonderful weekend and 3rd week of Advent!
