

The Weekly Warrior

Check out the news and events happening at St. Charles School!

Dear school families,

This Sunday, the readings illustrate the challenge of following Jesus. The first reading, psalm, and Gospel foreshadow Jesus' death. The second reading and Gospel reveal how our own sinfulness and selfishness can lead us away from God. Let us ask God to help us find balance so we have a healthy humility that allows us to serve effectively. (taken from Catechist, September 2018, pgs. 41-42)

Notes for the week:

- Thank you to the Parent Teacher Organization for organizing the Tailgate party on Friday! I hope to see you here at 5:30 in the upper church parking lot.
- Please be sure to give your thanks to the Knights of Columbus members for their support with our Taco Tuesdays. As you recall, they are purchasing the meat for our tacos each week.
- Please keep selling your Warrior 52 raffle tickets and be sure to purchase your Fall Dinner/Dance tickets.
- Teachers look forward to seeing you on Monday, September 24 or Wednesday, October 3. This is a wonderful time to ask some questions:
  1. Is my child performing at a proficient level in basic skills? If not, is my child above or beyond? How can I help?
  2. What are my child's strengths and weaknesses?
  3. Does my child need extra help in any area?
  4. Does my child do all assigned work?
  5. Does my child seem to like school and get along with classmates?

Have a wonderful weekend!
