

The Weekly Warrior

Check out the news and events happening at St. Charles School!

Dear school families,

In our readings this Sunday, we hear two areas of concern: the “out there” and the “in here.” The “out there” appears when someone who is not part of the disciples’ group heals in the name of Jesus. This leads to an “us versus them” thinking. We see this today with social and political issues. We also hear about the cause of division in our inner being—where we make choices. Reading the Gospel as a whole, we are reminded to prioritize having a relationship with God over creating divisions. (taken from Catechist, September 2018, pgs. 42-43)

Weekly highlights:

- Thank you to the parents who attended parent teacher conferences on Monday. We look forward to seeing the rest of you on Wednesday, October 3. If you missed the conference, please call the school to schedule a time.
- If your child in grades 4 through 8 would like to start altar serving, please let me know ASAP. Training will begin soon.
- We would like to move closer and closer to being a green school. If you would like to receive the Weekly Warrior via email only, please email school@saintscjm.com or principal@saintscjm.com. If you would like to continue to receive the paper copy, simply do nothing.
- Please note that Friday, October 5 is a half day of school. Dismissal will be at 11:00. Parents must pick up students. No daycare.
- Attached to this note, you will find a letter from the assistant superintendent, Jill Annable, and Educational Instructional Specialist, Erin Weaver, explaining the new standards and report cards. Also, please find the letter from me explaining how we will use the report cards in our building.

Have a blessed week!
