

The Weekly Warrior

Check out the news and events happening at St. Charles School!

Dear Parents,

On the third Sunday of Easter, we hear that Jesus is merciful enough to meet us in our need. The disciples learn this as they recognize Jesus while fishing. The Gospel has many layers of depth. However, we see that it reveals Jesus as someone who meets us where we are in our day-to-day lives of work and eating and planning for the future. If at times we feel at loose ends or lost, simply being responsible to do the work necessary each day offers God a place to meet us. (taken from Catechist, April/May 2019, p. 42)

Please have your son or daughter participate at the 9:00 Mass this Sunday for May Crowning. Second graders are asked to wear their First Communion clothing and serve as honor guards during the crowning. Eighth grade girls and boys are asked to wear their Sunday best. Boys will gather flowers near the statue and girls will process to Father Bauer for the crown blessing and then to the statue for the crowning. All students are asked to bring a flower to present to Mary.

Important updates to our calendar:

- We will be in session Monday, June 10 and Tuesday, June 11. We will end with these days as half days, since we are carrying our calendar as it was into the 10th and 11th. The awards assembly will be on Tuesday, June 11 beginning at 8:45 a.m. As in the past, students may leave with their parents/grandparents after the assembly.
- Dismissal time on June 10 and 11 will be 11:00 a.m. There will NOT be bus service from Greenville Public Schools.
- Spring concert date is May 29 at 6:30. All kindergarten through fifth grade students are expected to attend.
- Fun Day is scheduled for June 6th. More details to follow.

This will be an exciting weekend for our school. I hope that you will be joining us either Saturday or Sunday. Thank you to all of the volunteers who are planning the weekend events!

Blessings!

A person who only thinks about building walls, wherever they may be, and not building bridges is not Christian. This is not in the Gospel.
