

The Weekly Warrior

Check out the news and events happening at St. Charles School!

Dear school families,

This Sunday in our Gospel reading, we hear about a group of lepers that teach us about acting in faith. Despite their dire circumstances, the lepers believed in Jesus' power to heal and wanted to seek him out. Jesus told them to go to the priests while they still had their disease. The lepers were healed only after they began their journey. They literally had to step forward in faith. We, too, need to step out in faith. We need to take some time in prayer and ask Jesus where he wants to help us. Let us ask Jesus for more faith to overcome places of struggle, confusion, disappointment or conflict in our lives. (taken from Catechist, October 2019, p. 39-40)

Thank you so much to those of you who attended the Protect Young Eyes presentation. We are living in very challenging times when it comes to social media, and our hope is that this information will help you, and our students, make good decisions going forward. Thank you to the Parent Teacher Association for hosting the event. Your support of candy bar sales allowed this event to happen.

We also purchased many new pieces of equipment for the playground and PE class. These items were all purchased using Walk-a-Thon proceeds. Thank you for your support of that event.

You will find MAPS testing results in your child's weekly packet of papers. The report is well organized. Please call your child's teacher or myself if you have any questions.

Warrior 52 raffle ticket sales are quite slow. Please know that this is an expectation of all families to sell the 10 issued tickets. We also have many more to sell. Volunteers are still needed to sell tickets after the Masses. Contact Mrs. Rittersdorf if you can help. The Harvest dinner and dance is also fast approaching. Have you purchased your tickets yet? This is a great family event, and we don't want you to miss it.

Thank you for your donations of money and diapers and wipes for Alpha Family Center. We will continue to collect diapers and wipes until the end of October.

I hope to see all of our dads at Doughnuts with Dads on Wednesday, October 16 beginning at 7:00 a.m. in McKinney Hall.

Picture day is also on Wednesday, October 16. Students are allowed to be out of uniform, but jeans or shorts are NOT permitted. Thank you.

Important upcoming reminders:

- No after school bus service on Oct. 23
- No orchestra or band on Oct. 23
- No school Oct. 25 due to professional development

Have a blessed weekend!
