

The Weekly Warrior

Check out the news and events happening at St. Charles School!

Dear school families,

The Gospel message on Sunday is a parable that looks at prayer. This parable is rooted in Jewish law. When we explore the ideas of prayer and the Law, we discover there is more taking place in this Gospel than we might initially realize. We hear about the widow and a judge. The lesson for us in this parable is persistence. Let us be persistent in prayer and keep turning to God in trust. (taken from Catechist, October 2019, pgs. 41-42).

It has been a busy week at St. Charles. Thank you to our wonderful volunteers who made things happen--from Taco Tuesday, to Doughnuts with Dads; from library and recess duty to helping at Culver's; from Young Detectives to Cooking Club--volunteers are an integral part of our ability to provide what we do. If you haven't volunteered for a position yet--or would like to do more--please call the school office to find out where the most help is needed.

We are one week away from the Fall dinner and dance. Be sure to get your tickets very soon, so we can have an accurate count for dinner. This is a family event with many activities planned including a costume contest and pumpkin decorating contest. Tickets are available in the school office and after Masses.

Important reminders for next week:

- Wednesday, October 23 - No band or orchestra; No after school bus service
- Friday, October 25 - School will not be in session because of staff professional development.

This week, I have noticed that I need to remind of a few dress code issues:

- Knee socks (or leggings) must be worn with plaid jumpers. Socks must reach the knee.
- Boys in grades 4 - 8 must wear a belt.
- Sweaters, not sweatshirts, may be worn. They must be black, gray or burgundy.
- Hair bows are getting rather large and distracting. The dress code states, "no big or elaborate hair accessories." Please be sure that hair bows and headbands are not too big.

Have a wonderful fall weekend filled with many blessings!
