

The Weekly Warrior

Check out the news and events happening at St. Charles School!

Dear school families,

We are entering the second Sunday of Lent already. We are discussing prayer, fasting and almsgiving at hall prayer each morning, along with our virtue. In the Sunday Gospel, we will hear the story of the transfiguration. Jesus brought Peter, James and John to the mountaintop. Peter, James and John watched Moses and Elijah talking with Jesus who was bathed in his Father's glory. This experience helped Peter see the glory of God! Jesus is calling us to go away with him to a high mountain. We need to make time for him everyday. Pray. Go to Mass. Ponder His word. Sit in his presence and be filled with awe and wonder at who he is. Let us continue on our journey during this Lenten season. (taken from The Word Among Us, Lent 2020, p. 33)

We will continue with student led Stations of the Cross on Mondays at 1:25 in church. Please join us if you are able.

Registration information is included with your weekly papers. Please be sure to read, complete and send papers back in a timely manner. Families who register and pay registration fees by May 1 will be entered to win a gift card.

On Wednesday, the students will be treated to a spaghetti lunch. The lunch will include spaghetti with meat sauce and bread.

Thanks to last year's walk-a-thon, students will be treated to another assembly called BenJammin'. This will be a musical assembly, and parents are certainly welcome to attend.

The Monday Charity Day donations will be used to purchase a Buddy Bench for our playground. A Buddy Bench is a special place on a school playground where a child can go when they want someone to talk to.

Have a beautiful weekend filled with God's blessings!
