Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you. Psalm 92:2

Weekly News

-Lent is upon us. This week we will be attending Mass on Wednesday for Ash Wednesday. We will be discussing how we prepare our hearts and minds during these 40 days of Lent. It is a good reminder of how we are to make time for Jesus each and every day.

-March is Reading Month. Be sure to encourage your child to track their reading times. Information on the fun activities planned for this month will be coming home. Students have opportunities to win some cool prizes too! Read, Read, Read!

-Sarah, Plain and Tall-we will finish the book and will be watching the movie. Following the movie, the students will create a list of similarities and differences between the book and the movie.

-Our math unit on comparing fractions will be completed this week. We will review and have a test on Tuesday, March 8. The next unit will pertain to fractions and decimals.

-The Midwest region will be our next focus area in social studies. Students will begin learning about this region of our country and identifying states and capitals. Google Classroom has a practice game that is a fun way to help students learn the states and capitals.

-The students will have a test Thursday, March 3 on vocabulary from Sarah Plain and tall. They will need to know spelling and definition.

-Reminder No school Friday for Professional Development. Hope everyone enjoys the day off.
