Our Learning

Even though we are only two weeks into the year, this group has made a great deal of improvement! We are doing a really good job raising our hands and not blurting as much. We will continue to work on classroom routines for working and listening, especially so we can follow directions more accurately.

Your student will start having homework each night next week. Please complete the short assignment, and make sure he or she brings it back the following day. Thank you!

Reminders

- * Please send a snack each day.
- * Check your student's folder each night and return to school.
- * No school on Friday, August 29th or Monday, September 1st for Labor Day!
