GREETINGS PARENTS!

This week in Preschool we're learning all about family roles, special traditions and the way our families spend time together going to Mass. These lessons help children better understand their own families and appreciate how others live and celebrate too!

What we're learning this week:

Language and Literacy:

Story time Books- "A Walk Through Our Church" by Gertrud Nelson, "The Family Book" by Todd Parr, "Just Like My Brother" by Gianna Marino and "Shoes from Grandpa" by Men Fox.

Vocabulary:

Mother, father, grandparents, brother, sister, priest, tradition, church, and prayer.

Arts and Crafts:

Prayer Beads, House collage, and family foods placemats.

Math and Science:

Stamping with unifix cubes, writing the number 2 in shaving cream and gluing tissue paper squares onto large square pictures.

Social Emotional:

Talking about who helps at home and at church, sharing special family traditions and practicing saying "thank you" to family helpers.

We are looking forward to learning about the special ways your family lives, loves and worships together!

Many Blessings,

Mrs. Evans
