GREETINGS PARENTS!

This week our preschoolers had a wonderful time exploring everything pumpkins!

Activities this week:

Carved pumpkins and explored their shapes.

Counted pumpkin seeds and compared sizes.

Explored the gooey insides of pumpkins the "guts"!

Read the story "Spookley The Square Pumpkin" by Joe Troiano and discussed how being different is special.

Made our own square pumpkin craft inspired by Spookley.

Roasted and baked pumpkin seeds for a yummy snack!

Spiritual Lesson:

We learned about Jonah and the Big Fish. Our lesson reminded us that God always gives us another chance to make the right choice, just like He did for Jonah.

Looking Ahead:

Our Halloween social will be Wed, October 29. You are welcome to send your child in their costume, but please no masks and have a change of clothes underneath. All snacks must be peanut free. Next week, our theme will be all about friends!

Have a Great Weekend!

Many Blessings,

Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Slating and Mrs. Norton
