Dear Parents,
Thank you for the amazing food donations this week! We will be able to provide a lot of meals for those in need. We have been busy in class learning about and preparing for Thanksgiving, as well as learning about liturgical seasons of the church. Believe it or not, we will be preparing for the Advent season during the next couple weeks!

Have a wonderful weekend!

Parents,
Please have your child look for library books and clear envelopes this weekend. We are missing several books and holders. We go to the library on Fridays. Thank you!

Please remember that our Thanksgiving family Mass and luncheon is next Friday. Mass will begin at 11:00, and lunch will be held afterwards. Students will be dismissed with you following the luncheon.

Little Flowers and Blue Knights is scheduled for Tuesday, November 17. Pick-up time is 4:00 in the upper parking lot. To avoid confusion, please let me know whether your child will be attending or not.
