Dear Parents,
We have definitely been blessed with beautiful weather this fall, but it looks like that has come to an end. Please have your child begin looking for their mittens, hats, boots, etc. I have a feeling we will need those in the near future. If you have any snowpants or boots that you will no longer need, we are always very grateful for those donations. They work great for kids who may forget occasionally forget their snow gear. Thank you!
